In the Footsteps of Lewis and Clark (National Geographic Special Publications) Gerald S. Snyder
Western American History. Author Gerald S. Snyder of National Geographic's Special Publications Division and his family retraced the route of the men--and one Indian woman, Sacagawea. They followed the trail of the expedition by car and towboat, by canoe and rubber raft, on foot and on horseback. They sweltered under a Missouri summer sun, shivered on the Pacific coast in winter---and celebrated a North Dakota Christmas with buffalo meat broiled over a blazing cottonwood-log fire
