Pescadores de los raudales del Río Magdalena durante el período Formativo Tardío (siglos V al I a. C) (Spanish Edition) Germán Alberto Peña León

En este libro se presentan los resultados de la investigación arqueológica realizada en el yacimiento de Arrancaplumas, que se localiza en la zona de raudales del río Magdalena (Colombia) y que pertenece al período Formativo Tardío. Se aborda el estudio de este yacimiento desde una perspectiva medioambiental, con énfasis en las evidencias de fauna y flora, teniendo en cuenta las características geográficas, así como el contexto cultural derivado de los análisis de la cerámica y los elementos líticos. El objetivo principal de esta investigación fue analizar los recursos faunísticos aprovechados, especialmente el recurso pesquero en cuanto a su diversidad, abundancia y sostenibilidad por parte de los grupos humanos que habitaron en dicho lugar.
