Voltron #11 Brandon Thomas

Commander Keith and Princess Allura love each other very much, and have done their best to remain committed to one another despite being constantly pulled away by their larger responsibilities to the Voltron Force and the planet Arus. But their best is no longer good enough, and they're both beginning to suspect that they don't know everything there is to know about each other. That perhaps they're both keeping secrets for the so-called "greater good," that if revealed, could tear them apart forever. The shocks keep coming in "Double Blind," and it's apparent that this relationship is yet another thing at risk in this brave new world...
