Wife By Force: International Billionaires II: The Italians Caro LaFever

A desperate billionaire, willing to do anything to have her. A sexually frustrated virgin, only willing to give him one thing. A second chance at love both are afraid to believe in.

With her father about to lose his house and her brother about to go to jail, Lara Derrick can find no other way to save them than to marry her detested, and up-to-now rejected, suitor. Dante Casartelli might be every other woman's dream—tall, dark, and insanely rich—but his actions against her in the past and now, in the present, can only ensure her continued animosity.

Forced to be his wife, Lara is determined not to end up being something far worse: pregnant by him. Although the man tries to use his sexual prowess in bed to convince her their marriage is worth saving, she can't trust him or his word.

Dante, however, is intent on winning back the girl he fell for long ago and he'll use every trick that comes his way to gain her trust and love once more. Because to lose Lara again will break his heart forever.
