Buscando a Marilyn (Breviarios de Rey Lear nº 16) (Spanish Edition) Ignacio Carrión

En el verano de 1987, vísperas del 25 aniversario de la muerte de Marilyn Monroe, Ignacio Carrión recorrió Estados Unidos de costa a costa en busca de las huellas del sex-symbol que enamoró a toda América y despertó los deseos del resto del mundo. Rastreó la pista de aquella criatura vulnerable desde su adolescencia miserable hasta su muerte, si cabe, aún más miserable. Entrevistó a su primer marido, Jim Dougherty, el único que la conoció virgen; al camarero del restaurante a donde la llevó a comer Tom Kelley después de fotografiarla desnuda para un calendario y al florista que durante décadas depositó en su tumba rosas rojas por encargo de Joe Di Maggio, el segundo marido de Marilyn. Este libro recopila por primera vez aquel largo y melancólico recorrido por una geografía, la del mito.
