Ethan Frome (Spanish Edition) Edith Wharton

Un joven ingeniero retenido por su trabajo en una pequeña localidad de Massachusetts observa a un hombre lisiado y envejecido que recoge en la oficina de correos una revista y un sobre con medicamentos. Es invierno y el ambiente del pueblo es claustrofóbico. El aspecto educado del hombre, la edad que no corresponde a su físico, los misteriosos silencios y prevenciones que despierta su presencia en los demás, su vida casi aislada en una destalada granja con dos mujeres, llevan a preguntarse al ingeniero por qué sigue viviendo en un sitio de donde, como dicen los lugareños, «casi todos los listos se marchan». Pero el hombre tiene un motivo para no haberse marchado, o para haberlo intentado y nunca conseguido: una historia en la que se mezclan la fatalidad del destino y todas las sutilezas del amor prohibido.

Ethan Frome (1911) es una nouvelle cuyo escenario –los pueblos y bosques de Nueva Inglaterra– es toda una tradición de la más distinguida literatura norteamericana (de Hawthorne a Lovecraft) pero una excepción en una novelista esencialmente moderna y urbana como Edith Wharton. Sin embargo, desde su publicación, no dejaría de ser una de sus obras más características, uno de los ejemplos más celebrados de su sensibilidad y de su estilo. Un auténtico clásico norteamericano y una auténtica lección de arte narrativo.
