Nurse Katie Carlyon has come to start a new life in the Cypriot sunshine—but on arrival she realises she has been let down by the man she has come to marry. While helping to save a tourist's life at the airport, her nursing skills—and her vulnerable beauty—instantly impress the man who has been sent to meet her: handsome A&E doctor Christos Constantine.

Christos is quick to offer Katie a job, and as they work together sparks begin to fly—their reluctant respect for each other cannot hide the smouldering passion that sizzles between them. Although Christos is wary of love, he realises he must put his heart on the line and convince this beautiful English rose to stay in the sun...and become his bride.
