El sueño de Hipatia (Spanish Edition) José Calvo Poyato

Egipto, siglo IV. Los cristianos se hacen con el control de la sociedad ensombreciendo a los sabios y filósofos que hicieron de Alejandria una tierra de conocimiento y tolerancia. Figura esencial de ese mundo amenazado será Hipatia, matemática y astrónoma acérrima defensora de la cultura clásica cuya actitud fue un desafío permanente para una Iglesia cada vez más fortalecida e intransigente. Tanto su trágica muerte como el silencio que cayó sobre ella fue el alto precio que tuvo que pagar, pero no el único.

Egipto, tras la Segunda Guerra Mundial. Unos campesinos descubren por azar unos códices cuyo contenido oculto durante mil quinientos años despierta el interés de muchas personas. Habrá alguien dispuesto incluso a matar por apoderarse de ese documento. Un periodista, junto a grupo de investigadores británicos, tratará de esclarecer la relación de estos sucesos con el tiempo que le tocó vivir a Hipatia de Alejandría. Nada será como parece.

Un intenso y riguroso thriller histórico sobre uno de los personajes más deslumbrantes y olvidados de la Historia. Una novela que reivindica la fuerza de la razón y la tolerancia frente al fanatismo de quienes a lo largo de los siglos han pretendido imponer sus dogmas.
