Medio sol amarillo (Spanish Edition) Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie

Medio sol amarillo* es una novela épica y magistral, que cuestiona el colonialismo, las alianzas étnicas y la responsabilidad moral de un conflicto, el de Nigeria, apoyado por las potencias mundiales.

Medio sol amarillo recrea un período de la historia contemporánea de África: la lucha de Biafra por conseguir una república independiente de Nigeria, y la consecuente guerra civil que segó la vida de miles de personas.

Con gran empatía y la naturalidad de una narradora comprometida, Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie recrea la vida de tres personajes atrapados en las turbulencias de la década: el joven Ugwu, empleado de la casa de un profesor universitario de ideas revolucionarias; Olanna, la hermosa mujer del profesor, que por amor ha abandonado su privilegiada vida en Lagos para residir en una polvorienta ciudad, y Richard, un joven y tímido inglés que está enamorado de la hermana de Olanna, una mujer misteriosa que renuncia a comprometerse con nadie. A medida que las tropas nigerianas avanzan, los protagonistas de esta historia deben defender sus creencias y reafirmar sus lealtades.

Reseñas:

«Una novela extraordinaria.»

J.M. Coetzee

«Una novela importante, con muchos logros a nivel estilístico y una maestría indiscutible a la hora de recrear una guerra. Es una lección de historia en forma de novela, evocativa y absorbente.»

Publishers Weekly

«Adichie dota a sus personajes de vida y de profundidad en el marco de una guerra cruel. En manos de una escritora de esta talla, se convierte en una lección de historia inolvidable.»

The Arizona Republic

«Medio sol amarillo es la segunda novela de Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie, escritora que todavía no tiene treinta años y promete ser una de las grandes. Es difícil resumir todos sus logros en pocas palabras; la prosa es admirable, con una capacidad decimonónica de recrear una historia en todo su esplendor, con inteligencia para manejar el tema de la guerra y el amor sin que la novela se descomponga ni en una sola página. Lo que hace esta escritora es literatura clásica, en el mejor de los sentidos.»

Will Blythe, Elle
