The police are the patron saint of social justice. In building the order of government by law, no matter how wonderful the dream is, one of the foundations lies undoubtedly in the hardworking of the police, who turn the countless good wishes or profound theory into reality. With a view to the profession of police we are familiar with, Dr. Song Yuansheng profoundly analyzes various aspects of the police, including both the police in history and the police in reality, both the profession of police and police ethics, both police behavior and police psychology, and both police power and counterbalance of the power. We can say that the book, in study of the police, shows considerable depth and innovation both in terms of methodology and ideology.
