A Dona do Café Mühle (Portuguese Edition) Helena Marten

O café e os segredos do seu preparo são o delicioso fio condutor pelo qual a autora Helena Marten reproduz a atmosfera de Frankfurt na primeira metade do século 18, época em que as cafeterias começam a se espalhar pela Europa. Esses estabelecimentos ainda se confundiam com tavernas e, não raro, com antros de prostituição e jogos de azar. É esse tipo de preconceito que Joanna, a protagonista, enfrenta ao herdar o Café Mühle após a morte do marido. Além disso, precisa mostrar força e coragem para lutar contra rivais inescrupulosos que querem arruinar o seu negócio.

Para construir a trama, a autora Helena Marten lança mão de personagens multifacetados e mergulha nos becos do bairro judeu de Frankfurt para retratar as difíceis condições de vida daquela comunidade. E leva a protagonista a uma viagem incrível pelo mundo do café, que inclui uma passagem por Veneza e o famoso Caffè Florian e até por Constantinopla, a capital do Império Otomano, onde Joanna aprende os segredos da ‘mestre cafeeira’ do sultão.

Em suas andanças, Joanna nunca perde de vista a lembrança de seu Café Mühle e o amor proibido que sente por Gabriel, um violinista judeu. Uma história sem precedentes, repleta de sedução, desejo e superação.
