Raíces de dolor (Plataforma Novela Histórica) (Spanish Edition) Carlos Lens

España, 1974. Descendiente de Jürgen Lutz, un ingeniero alemán emigrado a las Rías Bajas en el siglo XIX, Eugenio Lutz se sumerge tras la muerte de un pariente en el archivo de su familia, en un pazo de Galicia.

La lectura de algunos documentos revela que los Lutz de Galicia están en deuda con un familiar de Núremberg que militó en las SS y está acusado de crímenes de guerra. Eugenio y su hermana Nucha deciden investigar porque ambos comparten la sensación de que el perfil de Lothar Lutz no coincide con el de un asesino de masas y abordan una búsqueda que los llevará por varios países de Europa y a Israel.

Acompañados por un militar norteamericano y seguidos de cerca por organizaciones rivales, los hermanos Lutz recorren un camino impreciso y jalonado de obstáculos en busca de la verdad sobre el Obersturmbannführer Lutz, héroe de Borodino, destinado en Auschwitz y fallecido en la batalla de Budapest.

Los diarios de Lothar Lutz, la identificación de personas que conocieron al SS y la paciente agregación de datos proporcionan información sorprendente a los hermanos. La búsqueda de Eugenio y Nucha se desarrolla sobre el trasfondo de una España en la que agoniza la dictadura del general Franco y una Europa presa de las contradicciones y el enfrentamiento de los dos grandes bloques políticos en plena guerra fría.

Una historia de pasiones que brotan incontenibles en dos generaciones distintas, separadas por las tragedias de dos guerras, pero cuyos intereses están íntimamente entrelazados.
