Long before the phone hacking scandal and Edward Snowden's leak of top-secret documents, Harry Fingle, an investigative journalist, had doubts about the integrity of the British police and the secret services. When he's charged with a crime he didn't commit, his brother and sister-in-law are murdered, and he's fired for no reason, he becomes deeply suspicious, and starts to dig deep. He finds—rooted into the heart of the British establishment—a conspiracy so shocking and scandalous it beggars belief. Both the CIA and MI6 are complicit: each with blood on their hands. People in high places order Harry's death, his ex-partner of seven years won't let him go, and the loyalty of his long-standing friend is brought into doubt. The Harry Fingle Collection brings together, in one edition, the three books—Playing Harry, Assassination Continuum, and Zero One—that chronicle Harry's frightening four-year nightmare.
