Nathaniel's Chorus combines espionage, adventure, loyalties and romance in an action filled mystery set in present day with solutions found in the past. An innocent fraternity created by three brothers, morphs into an international terrorist organization that threatens the very existence of everything they each hold dear.

Nathaniel's Chorus is the first in a series following the lives and loves of three brothers and a secret society that permeates every strata of life. The brothers learn that for every action, whether intended or accidental, there will be a consequence that follows. The first truth they learn is that; "Secrets kept will bring death to a nation, secrets told will destroy us all."
