El estado natural de las cosas (Caballo de Troya 2016, 3) (Spanish Edition) Alejandro Morellón

Siete historias que ponen patas arriba el sentido común, las leyes de la naturaleza y el buen gusto convencional.

«Siempre he disfrutado de la violencia de lo cotidiano: por ejemplo, la de un vaso que se rompe en la oscuridad.»

Un hombre se presta a perder una parte de su cuerpo a cambio de unos miles de euros; una mujer ríe en medio de los disturbios sociales que arrasan la ciudad; un pueblo espera con devoción la llegada de un huracán; alguien entierra un testículo en el cementerio de la Almudena; un marido acaba viviendo en el techo...

Son solo algunos de los planteamientos radicales y perversos que encontramos en esta antología de relatos, tan atenta a la fabulación más exigente como a la creación de unas resonancias sentimentales capaces de interpelarnos.

El estado natural de las cosas es una colección de historias donde no solo se pone en tela de juicio lo que entendemos por normalidad, sino también las leyes fundamentales de la física y hasta el buen gusto convencional.

Porque estas siete narraciones de Alejandro Morellón se adscriben al género fantástico, pero lo modulan y deforman para volverlo a su vez denuncia y retrato de los tiempos que nos ha tocado vivir.

El estado natural de las cosas* de Alejandro Morellón es el tercer título que el autor Alberto Olmos, editor invitado de Caballo de Troya durante 2016, trae a su colección «El caballo de Alberto».
