God-Images in the Healing Process Kathryn Armistead, M. Kathryn Armistead

What does it mean in a pastoral relationship when a careseeker evokes specific images of God or begins to speak of angels, demons or near-death experiences? Armistead offers practical psychological and theological guidance on these questions for counselors. Using case studies, she shows how to discover and discern the unconscious weavings of images, feelings and ideation that combine to produce God-language and images of God, "what is most holy to the self."
