Pax romana (Novela Historica (roca)) (Spanish Edition) Yeyo Balbás

Año 25 a.C. Tras derrotar a Marco Antonio y Cleopatra, Octavio ha sido nombrado por el senado primer ciudadano de Roma y Augusto. Ahora dirige una guerra encaminada a conquistar a los cántabros y astures, los últimos pueblos no sometidos de Hispania, requisito indispensable para instaurar la ansiada Paz Romana. Sin embargo, la tenaz resistencia autóctona le obligará a solicitar refuerzos desde el sur de la Galia para tomar a su enemigo por la espalda. Desembarcada en tierra hostil, la Novena Legión pronto se ganará el sobrenombre de Hispana tras una dura campaña contra las tribus cántabras. Marco Vitruvio Rufiano, ingeniero militar, y sus compañeros de contubernio deberán atravesar el territorio enemigo enfrentándose un líder insurgente llamado Corocuta, por el que Augusto ha ofrecido una enorme recompensa. Este hecho, junto a las fricciones internas, los abocará a una despiadada conjura en torno a la guerra. Pax Romana es un minucioso retrato de la vida cotidiana de las legiones romanas que nos transporta desde los campos de batalla de Bélgica hasta los bajos fondos de la Suburra y las opulentas mansiones del Palatino. Gracias a una sólida documentación, constituye un interesante retrato de la sociedad que fue testigo de la transición de la Republica al Imperio, así como una vívida recreación de las guerras cántabras.
